

POLICY

1995

8460

Instruction

SUBJECT: Home Tutoring (Permanent Instruction)

From time to time, parents will choose to instruct their children at home. The School District will attempt to cooperate with parents who wish to provide home schooling for their children realizing that the child who is educated at home should receive an education in a manner consistent with an educational plan and at least substantially equivalent to that given to minor of like age and attainments in the local public schools. The required subject should be taught in a competent, systematic and sequential manner, specifically in relation to the basic core curriculum of reading, mathematics and writing.

The Superintendent shall develop appropriate regulations and procedures.

8 New York Code of Rules and Regulations (NYCRR) Section 100.10
Education Law Sections 3204, 3205, 3210 and 3212